

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, September 19. 1702.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 14.

FROM the Camp at Goczycze, a League distant from Sendomir, Aug. 24. Last Sunday the King arriv'd here with his Saxon Forces, and pass'd over a Bridge that was laid on the River Sunna; the Life-Guards remaining behind. The Army of the Crown are encamp'd 2 Leagues on the other side of Sendomir; Whither the rest of the Weywods of Great Poland are on their march. Some words having pass'd about the present Juncture of Affairs, between the Weywods of Sendomir and the Waywod of Calisch who was sent on the first Embassy from the Republick to the King of Sweden, and he giving them some occasion of believing him better inclin'd to the Swedes than they would have had him, they cut him with their Sabres in such a manner that his Life is despaired of. The Swedish Succours from Pomerania are come near to Cracow: The Starost Sandecki and Prince Lubomirski fell upon their Rear not long since, kill'd 100 Men, and took some Baggage-Waggons: And the Chamberlain of the Crown with a body of Cossacks has taken away some Hundreds of Oxen and Sheep from the Swedes in Pintzow. The King of Sweden exacts Contribution about Cracow with much Severity. Two days ago the Diet assembled here in the open Field, and the Field-Marshal of the Crown and Castellan of Cracow, Lubomirski, was chosen Marshal; as being the first Senator: And Yesterday at Kolo, they began to draw up an Association to assist His Majesty with their Lives and Fortunes, on Penalty of loss of Nobility and confiscation of Estate, continued to consult further about it to Day, and to Morrow will bring it to a final Determination.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 16.

Breslau, Sept. 6. We have a relation here of the Proceedings in the Diet of the Poles at Sendomir; but they are as confus'd in their Counsels as the Builders of Babel, and the Great ones can agree in nothing but for banishing Prebendowski the Palatin of Marienbourg, and Galezki the Palatin of Vratslaw; and that the Weywodship of Delenzi, lately conferr'd on Dobiansky the Cardinal's Nephew, be declar'd vacant. It was propos'd in the Assembly, 1. Not to enter into any Confederacy that might intrench upon the King's Authority or the tenor of their Laws. 2. To endeavour to get some Mediator. 3. To Strengthen the Army of the Crown. 4. That the Saxon Troops should move towards Livonia or Pomerania. 5. To invite Muscovy, Denmark, and Brandenburg to make a Diversion in the Territories of Sweden. But there is not the least appearance of one of these Propositions being brought into a Resolution. The King for his part declar'd Solemnly. 1. To keep the Pacta Conventa, 2. To send his Saxon Troops out of the Kingdom as soon as the Peace is made. 3. Not to make any Alliance without the Consent of the Republick. 4. To remove his Saxon Councillors. 5. To make void all Alliances that have been made without being communicated to the Republick. 6. Not to make any Demands on his Subjects, for the Charge and Damage that he has sustain'd in this War. 7. As soon as the Peace is concluded, to call a Diet on Horseback, and to deliver up the Authors of this War. The Imperial Ministers Remonstrances have made no Impression on the King of Sweden, for his Horse are on their march towards Warsaw, and his Foot are embark'd on the Vistula, to follow the King of Poland. There is a report in Poland of the Sapiehas having made over their Estates and Rights to the King of Sweden.

Hamburg, Sept. 12. They write from Poland that the King of Sweden persists in his intention to Dethrone the King of Poland: That the Swedish Army was broke up in 2 Bodies and march'd towards Sendomir, and that the King was about to follow them with the Troops that are come from Pomerania; That Count Zinzendorf the Imperial Envoy had Audience of the King of Sweden at Cracow on the 22d of August, and was receiv'd with all the marks of Favour, but has not yet had any Answer to his Proposals; That the Weywods who are assembled in the Polish Army have engag'd themselves by Oath to stand by their King, and that the King had promis'd to assist the Republick with his Saxon Troops; That some Deputies were sent to the King of Sweden to acquaint him with these Resolutions, and further, that as long as their King lived they would never consent to the electing of another; That the Cardinal Primate, Prince Radzevill Vice-Chancellor of Lithuania, the General of Great Poland, and other Noblemen were expected at Warsaw; and that the Swedish General Guldenstern was Sick of a Tertian Ague.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 16.

Warsaw, Aug. 31. The Swedish Army is very much incommoded by the Wallachians and Cossacks, so that they are forc'd to send out strong Convoys to secure those that bring them Provisions. The Poles, that lately inclin'd to the Swedes, begin now to side with their Own King. The Swedes are encamp'd near Magila, 2000 of them are quarter'd in Cracow, where the Reinforcement is arriv'd from Pomerania. They fortifie their Camp and have made a Wall and planted Palisadoes round it: They have made a strict Search in the Castle of Cracow for the Crown of Poland: The Treasury of the State was open'd likewise, The Regalia were sav'd before, but all that they found besides is seal'd up and secur'd. They have likewise taken away the Deposita of the Nobility; but have restor'd what belongs to the Church.

From the Amsterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 19.

Dantzick, Sept. 9. The Weywod of Kalisch died of his Wounds. The King is shortly expected at Warsaw, but will not tarry there long. The Republick have deputed Envoys to Mediate a Peace, but what Success they will have is yet uncertain.

Amsterdam, Sept. 18. They write from Dantzick that the King of Sweden is at Warsaw, and that 20000 Muscovites were marching into Poland to his Assistance.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 19.

Cracow, Sept. 2. The Imperial Envoy is frequently in Conference with the Swedish Ministers; The King of Sweden is in his Camp; there is no talk of his breaking up yet; but the Country for 10 Miles round, is order'd to bring him in Provisions. His Majesty has sent Count Zinzendorf, who has receiv'd Instructions to make new Proposals of Peace, to the Republick; and 'tis said the Republick will depute Commissioners to his Majesty.

These are all the Advices relating to Poland that came by the last Mails.
